GOWAN APPLAUDS DUCEY'S STAFF PICKS

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX (Dec. 18, 2014) – Arizona House of Representatives Speaker-elect David Gowan applauds Governor-elect Ducey's staff picks and congratulates each appointee.

"I want to send a special welcome to my former seat-mate Ted Vogt," said Speaker-elect Gowan. "I am looking forward to working with him again, and I know he will make an excellent chief of operations. As a veteran of the Afghanistan War, Vogt's commitment to serving the people of Arizona is one of the highest."

"Danny Seiden is also someone who I have worked with, and I know will be a tremendous asset to the people of Arizona as Governor-elect Ducey's deputy chief of staff for external affairs and policy development," said Speaker-elect Gowan.

"I also look forward to working with Sara Mueller, Senior Advisor, and Gretchen Martinez, Director of Legislative Affairs."
